

2016 Sacramento County History Day Champion Workshop

Congratulations! You are headed to the National History Day-California competition on May 6-7 at William Jessup University in Rocklin, California.

The Sacramento County History Day Committee is pleased to offer a Qualifiers Workshop for all Sacramento County History Day Champions. Here, you will learn important information about attending NHD-CA, discuss your County History Day Score Sheets with Judges, and get suggestions for improving your projects. Furthermore, you can get help with last minute research questions and interview techniques.

Date: Thursday, March 10, 2016

Times: 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
(You will be provided with a specific arrival time for your appointment)

Location: Sacramento County Office of Education - David P. Meany Education Center
10474 Mather Boulevard, Mather, CA 95655
(Directions: <http://www.scoe.net/about/maps/Pages/default.aspx>)

Food: Light snacks will be available.

Attendance is not required, but encouraged, and space is limited. Not all group members are required to attend, but please let us know how many members will be at the workshop.

RSVP

To attend this workshop, please RSVP to sachistoryday@scoe.net
by Wednesday, March 9 at 5:00 p.m.

Please use WORKSHOP RSVP as the subject

We will respond with your scheduled appointment & suggested arrival time.

What to bring

Please bring your score sheets, process paper/bibliography, your project (if possible) and laptop/tablet for the judges to refer to, and a list of potential ideas for improvement for the judges to comment on.

Once again, way to go on this achievement! We hope to see you on Thursday night!

Sincerely,
Sacramento County History Day Committee
